NOBELHOUSE COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP

Nigerian Fencing is proud to announce the start of the scholarship program with Nobelhouse College.

Two students from the 10,000 Grassroot Fencers Program have been selected to receive full academic scholarships at Nobelhouse College, Abeokuta.

Okanlawon Wisdom and Sobayo Temilade from Surulere and Yaba LGAs respectively, resumed on the 28th of October 2018. Both students have fully integrated into the school system, and working very hard to maintain good grades.

Nigerian Fencing and Nobelhouse College have set fencing/academic targets to be met by the students in order to retain the scholarship.

Parents and family members of the scholars were very excited about scholarship award.

Quote from a parent "We never expected our child attending such a prestigious school".

We will like to thank Nobelhouse College for their partnership on this noble cause. We look forward to long and meaningful partnership.

"We have to do the best we are capable of. This is our sacred human responsibility"

3RD BEMIL INTER-SCHOOL CIRCUIT

We held the 3rd BEMIL Inter-School circuit in the month of October.

The first circuit was for Secondary school fencers and it was hosted by Rainbow College on the 13th of October 2018

On the 20th of October 2018, the second circuit for primary school fencers was held at Bodyline Gym, Ikoyi.

Martins Bade won the event finishing ahead of 3 times David' cup Champion Ashaolu Tofunmi who won silver. Sawari Tully-Jo and Opasanya Obaloluwa came third and fourth respectively winning bronze medals.

F.I.E. SATELLITE WORLD CUP

Nigerian Epeist, Akande Oreoluwa competed at The F.I.E. Satellite World Cup (Irish Open Fencing Championships) on the 27th of October, 2018.

A total of 77 fencers participated representing 27 countries.

He had a good result finishing in the top half, considering this is his first international tournament.

We wish him success in future competitions

NEW FENCING CLUB - LEKKI

We are pleased to announce the opening of another branch of Premier Fencing Club an official club, within the Lekki axis.

The new club is located at 51, Durotimi Etti, Lekki 1, Lagos.
